MISSION STATEMENT

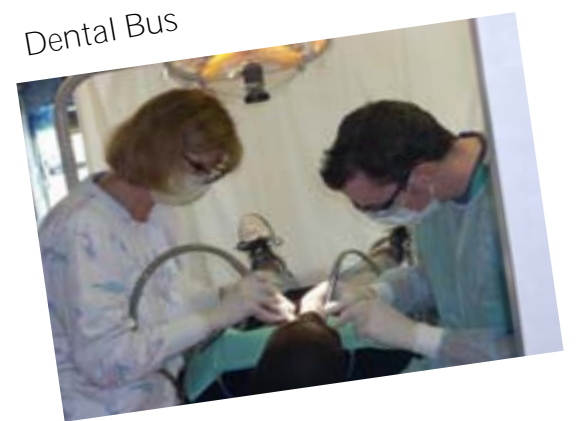

Leading Into New Communities, Inc. (LINC) is a non-profit organization established in Wilmington, North Carolina. We assist individuals in realizing their goals by creating bridges between them and valuable resources.

LINC provides shelter and services to men and women who have been released from local jails, state and/or federal prisons and on occasion young adults who have been released from detention centers.

Additionally, LINC provides services to children who are at-risk due to parental incarceration.
